SMCC Behaviour Policy

"Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God has forgiven you"

Paul's letter to the Ephesians 4:32

Introduction

At St Mary's, the Governing Body, Headteacher, Leadership team and all staff are committed to creating an environment where exemplary behaviour is at the heart of productive learning. Everyone is expected to maintain the highest standards of personal conduct, to accept responsibility for their behaviour and encourage others to do the same.

Our behaviour policy guides staff to teach self-discipline not blind compliance. It echoes our core values with a heavy emphasis on respectful behaviour, a partnership approach to managing poor conduct and dynamic interventions that support staff and pupils.

We are Trauma Informed, Attachment Aware and strive for the best relational practice. (A trauma informed school is one that is able to support children and teenagers who suffer with trauma or mental health problems and whose troubled behaviour acts as a barrier to learning).

Aims and Objectives

- To create a culture of exceptionally good behaviour: for learning, for community and for life.
- To ensure that all pupils are treated fairly, shown respect and to promote good relationships.
- To shift the narrative from tackling antisocial behaviour to promoting prosocial behaviour
- To refuse to give pupils attention and a sense of importance for poor conduct.
- To help pupils self regulate and be responsible for their own behaviour.
- To build a community which values kindness, care, good humour, good temper, discipline and empathy for others.
- To promote community cohesion through improved relationships.
- To ensure that excellent behaviour is celebrated and normalised.
- To reduce exclusion and increase inclusion.

Rules (Ready, Respectful and Safe)
Ready, Respectful and Safe are the three rules which underpin our behaviour policy.

'Ready' - Ready to learn, ready to listen, ready to participate etc.
'Respectful' - Respect for themselves. Showing respect to their peers, to adults, to our environment.
'Safe' - Safe in their learning environment, safe with the people around them and safe in the activities in which they are taking part.

Ready	Respectful	Safe
• School uniform • Full equipment • Listening • Be on time	1. Listen to others and expect to be listened to. 2. Appropriate language and tone. 3. Look after the building, displays and equipment. 4. Represent St Mary's at its best, both in and out of school.	• Be in the right place at the right time. • No physical contact. • Stay safe online both in and out of school. • Report any problems to an adult.

Behaviour Curriculum

We have a behaviour curriculum in our school to ensure that all students understand and consistently demonstrate the values, expectations, and social skills needed to create a safe, respectful, and inclusive learning environment. By explicitly teaching positive behaviours, we help students develop self-discipline, responsibility, and empathy, which support both academic success and personal growth. A clear and consistent behaviour curriculum also promotes fairness, reduces disruptions, and helps build a strong, supportive school culture where everyone can thrive.

Recognition

Arbor is the school's central platform for recording and monitoring all aspects of positive recognition. All staff use this system consistently to award positive points to pupils in recognition of their effort, behaviour, and contributions to school life.

This data is regularly reviewed by pastoral teams to identify top-performing pupils within each year group. These pupils may then be nominated for additional rewards, such as 'Hot Chocolate Friday' with the Headteacher which is a key initiative to celebrate and reinforce positive behaviour.

Below is a summary table of the positive recognition recorded across the school. This is shared with parents via an email at the end of each week showing what post they have received that week:

Lesson Engagement	Teachers award engagement points for students who are fully engaged in their learning. This celebrates moments when pupils are "caught getting it right" in line with school values.
Recognition board point	Students who appear to go 'above and beyond' in their lesson are acknowledged on our Recognition Board for demonstrating outstanding behaviour.
Positive postcard	Once per week, staff nominate a pupil to receive a physical praise postcard as part of their lesson. This postcard recognises exceptional effort, attitude, or contribution. The recognition is followed up with an email home to parents/guardians, identifying the subject and staff member who issued the praise.
Positive phone call	All teaching staff, including form tutors, are expected to make a minimum of one positive phone call home each week. These calls highlight a pupil's achievement either in their academic work or wider school contribution, strengthening the home-school partnership and reinforcing positive behaviour.
Extra curricular recognition	Pupils who participate in extra-curricular activities are recognised for their wider contribution to school life. This reinforces the importance of holistic development and celebrates engagement beyond the classroom.
Hot chocolate friday nomination	Each year the team reviews recognition data weekly and nominates two pupils per year group for 'Hot Chocolate Friday' with the Headteacher. This is a celebratory event where pupils are personally acknowledged for their positive behaviour, achievements, and contributions to the school community.

Celebrating Achievement Across the School Community

Classroom Displays of Excellence: High-quality pupil work is regularly displayed in classrooms to showcase achievement and effort. This visual recognition reinforces high standards and encourages pride in learning.

Recognition in the College Newsletter: Pupil achievements are also celebrated through the college's termly newsletter, which is shared with all parents, guardians, and the wider community. This ensures that success is recognised beyond the classroom and strengthens community engagement.

Termly Celebration Assemblies: At the end of each term, every year group takes part in a celebration assembly. Subject departments nominate two pupils per year group to receive a Subject Certificate Award. These are presented in front of peers, recognising academic achievement, effort, or progress in a public and meaningful way.

Following an incident where a pupil has been removed, it is important that the classroom teacher follows this up. 'Picking up your own tab' is a key principle here. The classroom teacher has the following options:

1. Catch up
Behaviour that results in a student being referred to the hub may need no more consequences. However, it is very important to catch up with the student before the next lesson, acknowledge that the previous lesson wasn't good for anyone and that the next lesson is a fresh slate. (This could take place with the pupil at the end of the day, or phone call home. This may also be discussed and coordinated through the departmental Push / Pull meeting)

2. Restorative Conversation
Walk and talk, stack books and talk, clean tables and talk. The Restorative Conversation is so much easier and more productive if it isn't two people sat at a table making awkward eye contact. Much better to talk while doing something else.

The restorative 5:
'What happened?
What were you thinking at the time?
Who has been affected?
What should we do to put things right?
How can we do things differently in the future?

These are questions for both the adult and the child. The purpose of the restorative conversation is not to build to a climax of apology. Rather to get students to look in the mirror and see their behaviour from a different perspective. It is a coaching conversation using a recent incident in sharp focus. There is real learning here, most of the time for the students, sometimes for everyone.

3. Imposition

Work that was not done in the lesson can be taken home and returned before the start of the next lesson. Impositions are ideal for students who have not completed work due to their poor behaviour. This work could be set and completed on Google Classroom.

4. Detention

A detention is a commonly used sanction, often used as a deterrent to future misbehaviour. It is typically a short period where the pupil is required to remain under supervision of school staff when their peers have been allowed to go home or to break.

The St Mary's Behaviour policy states that lengthy detentions served days after the incident don't make the point or teach anyone better future behaviour. Any detentions should be as soon after the event as possible,

Legislation, statutory requirements and statutory guidance

This policy is based on legislation and advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Behaviour in schools: advice for headteachers and school staff 2022
- The Equality Act 2010
- Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Suspension and permanent exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England, including pupil movement - 2022
- Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) Code of Practice.

What the law allows

The law states that teachers have authority to issue detentions to pupils, including same-day detentions. A school's behaviour policy should make clear that detention (including detention outside of school hours) can be used as a possible sanction. This addendum clarifies the use of after school detentions as part of our behaviour policy.

A detention outside normal school hours will be lawful if it meets the following conditions:

• the pupil is under 18 (unless the detention is during lunch break);
• the headteacher has communicated to pupils and parents that detentions outside school sessions may be used; and
• the detention is held at any of the following times:

a) any school day where the pupil does not have permission to be absent;
b) weekends during term - except a weekend during, preceding or following the half term break; or
c) non-teaching days – usually referred to as 'training days', 'INSET days' or 'non-contact days', except if it falls on a public holiday, on a day which precedes the first day of term, during the half-term break, or after the last school day of the term.

It will always be our aim to communicate detentions with parents however parental consent is not required for detentions that satisfy the conditions mentioned above.
If a break time or lunchtime detention is issued, staff should allow reasonable time for the pupil to eat, drink and use the toilet.

Detentions at St Mary's Catholic College

Department/teacher detentions

Department detentions can take place at breaktime, lunch time or after school. Detentions issued by departments are most likely to be for disruption to learning or failure to produce homework. Teachers can set these detentions as long as they meet the conditions set above.

Head of Year/Inspire tutor detentions

Pastoral detentions can take place at breaktime, lunch time or after school. Pastoral teams can set detentions as long as they meet the conditions set above.

Serious breach detentions

If a serious breach occurs a Pupil will complete a 15 minute detention the next day from 3:05pm to 3:20pm. Notice of this shared on the Arbor app with parents when the serious breach occurs.

Failure to attend a serious breach 15 minute detention will result in one or more of the following escalations:

- 30 minute detention after school, this will be
- Internal reflection time
- 1 hour detention after school
- Suspension

Monitoring this policy

This will be monitored in line with the behaviour policy, which will be reviewed by the headteacher and local governing body at least termly, or more frequently, if needed, to address findings from the regular monitoring of the behaviour data

Ensuring Equality

We will analyse our behaviour incident records to look for patterns and ensure that, in its operation, it is not discriminating against particular groups of pupils.

As a college we fully acknowledge our legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 to consider the safeguarding of our pupils and consider any special educational needs before any decisions are made regarding consequences. In doing so we recognise that some pupils require a more sensitive and differentiated approach.

5. Natural consequence

Cleaning up the mess, repairing the display, reorganising the classroom, making up with peers are examples of natural consequences. If you can find a consequence that repairs the damage rather than just punishing the behaviour it all makes more sense.

Removal from a lesson is a sanction in itself. Using phrases like: 'I would like you to come back for 10 minutes at break to complete the missed work' is much more supportive than 'you have a detention'. As part of the resolution you may wish to have a restorative meeting using the 'The restorative 5'- What happened? What were you thinking at the time? Who has been affected? What should we do to put things right? How can we do things differently in the future?

What happens in the Hub?

1. Self regulating and reflective space
2. Opportunity to talk, access support and reset
3. Quiet place to study

The area is managed by pastoral staff based in this area rather than their individual offices.

Regulate - Self regulating space

Initial contact with a member of the pastoral staff to determine whether there needs to be some time in this area. This is a quiet space to allow a student time to regulate in preparation for reintegration into lessons.

Restore - Space to talk, access support and reset

For most students the aim is for the repair/restore to take place straight away, if necessary, with the student staying in the Hub for only one lesson and returning to their next lesson ready for learning. In some instances, there may be a need to unpick an underlying issue and this may take longer, to allow the student the time to regulate their emotions.

Students are provided with a task to reflect on their behaviour, linked to the core values of St Mary's.

Pastoral staff would be responsible for the restorative actions and following up with HOD. Also, arranging any further support and/or assessment via Guidance and Support meetings

Return to learn - Quiet space to study

Students are expected to complete the work that they are missing due to being removed from class. Students would then return to their next class ready for learning.

How is a student referred to the Hub?

A student can be referred to The Hub by the Head of Department via Arbor. This is the first stage of the process of repair. This may be from a classroom teacher if it is not suitable for the student to be sent to the HOD / TLR holder. This should be when all other departmental strategies have been exhausted. Staff will request an SLT call out via Arbor to request the on call team to assist with a pupil which may result in the pupil being taken to the Hub. A pupil may also be required to attend the hub pending investigation into a behaviour or safeguarding incident.

End of day - Push / Pull briefing held with all departments to share the day and plan next actions for any students who have struggled and been unable to regulate. Does there need to be any further support offered? Update CPOMS if required. During this time HOD's should meet with their teams to ensure that any incidents that may have occurred during the day are followed up appropriately. Any actions should be logged on Arbor.

Higher level pastoral support

Nurture sits at the heart of higher level pastoral support. Children will be supported in their self regulation. There is no evidence that increasing levels of punishment are effective with students who struggle to regulate their behaviour. Teachers will have excellent communication about the agreed plan and should expect to be part of the plan for improving behaviour and relationships. At all times the team will be focused on positive outcomes for the student, teacher and indeed the right for the rest of the class to learn in a disciplined environment. Our Higher Level Pastoral Support will ensure the child is not passed between adults in the search for 'higher authority'. Instead the team around the child will sharpen their focus with increased coaching, negotiated target setting and nurture. See Appendix 1 .
We view coaching as a way of building relationships and Restorative Justice as a way of repairing relationships.

Coaching Support model

Recognising Achievement

HFCMAT

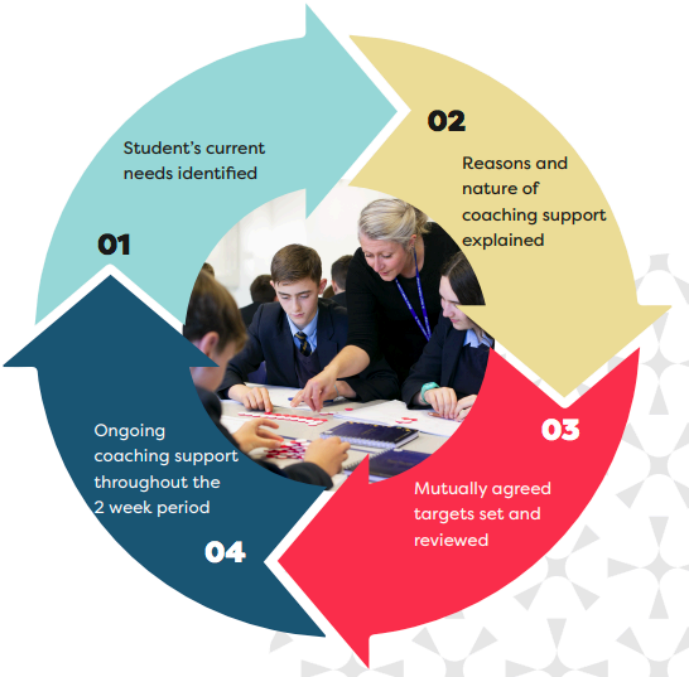

Holy Family Catholic Multi Academy trust is committed to recognising the achievements of all our young people.

We want happy, successful students who love coming to school and we have a behaviour policy that focuses on catching them getting it right! We deliberately exploit every opportunity to acknowledge our students being successful through recognition boards, positive phone calls and hot chocolate Friday to name a few.

We also know that as children journey through their time in secondary school they may need individual support at specific times. When barriers arise we respond quickly and in a supportive manner to ensure that our students can express themselves and work with staff to overcome those barriers. We use our staff / student coaching model to ensure that this process is collaborative and supports our students to achieve their potential.

"Every conversation is an intervention - we coach children as a matter a course".

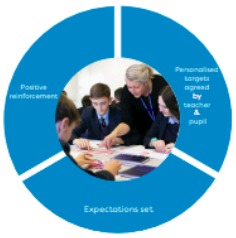

When a student is identified as needing support we surround them with Class teacher or Form tutor coaching.

Positive Behaviour Coaching

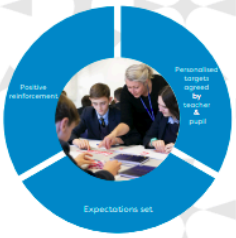

HFCMAT

Class Teacher Coaching
(2 week positive support)

Pre-coaching checklist...
- Consulted SENDCAR / SENDCO
- Seating plan change
- Liaised with Pastoral Team

Form Tutor Coaching
(2 week positive support)

As coaching commences...
- Personalised targets agreed by teacher and pupil
- Expectations discussed
- Positive reinforcement

HOD / TLR Coaching
(2 week positive support)

Building on support
- Personalised targets reviewed and agreed by HOD/TLR/HOY, classteacher and pupil
- Parental meeting (virtual / in school)
- ClassCharts reviewed with pupil

Head of Year Coaching

Parental meeting - Meetings with parents are always very powerful to address ongoing concerns. In these meetings it is important to highlight where things are going well and try to identify solutions where problems are occurring. If a student is receiving coaching support from a subject / pastoral leader, the parents must be informed and involved in the conversation. A weekly phone call home to update would be appropriate for most students.

Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) consultation - It is important to ensure that should inappropriate behaviour continue that there is a discussion with the Special Educational Needs and Disability Coordinator (SENDCO) to explore any additional needs. This could include an observation, gathering of staff feedback or a discussion through GAS and AIM. From this consultation, referrals may be made for further support and a pupil centred profile or support plan created.

Guidance and Support (GAS) /Additional Intervention Meetings (AIM) - GAS meetings are held every two weeks with key pastoral staff. These meetings are focused on support required for specific pupils. During AIM meetings which are held termly these GAS actions are reviewed by key pastoral staff and SLT. During these meetings further interventions may be considered and the SENDCAR updated.

360 Review Meeting - For students at risk of Fixed Term Exclusion where all angles are explored. The meeting will involve the student, Parent/Guardian, Trustee, Senior Leader, Progress and Aspiration Coach and SENDCO. It is an opportunity to find a way forward and address the poor behaviour that has led to this point. It is not a search for heavier sanctions or the development of more punitive measures. There will be agreements that emerge but no contracts or 'last chance red lines'. The role of the Progress and Aspiration Coach will be critical here in building the relationship with the student and sustaining the coaching over the medium term. The approach to the meeting will be restorative.

PCP - A Pupil Centred Profile is created by a member of the pastoral team to support the pupil to identify their own strengths and weaknesses in their own words. This is shared with staff to allow them to implement appropriate strategies to encourage a RRS learning environment for the pupil.

PSP - A Pupil Support Plan - is created by the pastoral team and in agreement with the pupil and parents. The purpose is to try and sharpen the pupil's focus and longer term aspirations using short term targets for both the pupil and staff.

Other agency support - In the event that school based strategies are not having an impact, referrals may be made to a number of outside agencies for additional support and interventions. This may include behaviour outreach, HSIS, CAMHS, youth worker, SALT, etc.

Spotlight - Should a student's behaviour continue to deteriorate the pastoral team will speak to colleagues about what works and that could feed into the Spotlight. The student will be discussed at GAS or AIM meetings and following this, information will be shared at a staff Spotlight briefing to provide information and strategies that must be implemented to support the pupil. This information will be shared when needed during weekly staff briefings to support pupils and provide support strategies for staff.

Alternative Provision / Managed move - In the event that a pupil is showing no improvements to their behaviour the Headteacher may suggest the pupil should attend Alternative Provision or initiate a managed move process to another school.

EHCP - During higher level interventions the SENDCO should be informed at all stages and these pupils should be priority discussion at GAS and AIM meetings. Interventions may be used to initiate a statutory assessment for the pupil in the event that school strategies do not work.

Exclusions & Governing Body Disciplinary Panel

In the event of a serious breach/no improvement as a result of the behaviour support that has been implemented the Headteacher reserves the right to issue a Fixed Term Suspension / Permanent Exclusion.

For permanent and fixed term exclusions that result in more than 15 days of exclusion in a term, there is a right to make representations at a meeting of the school Governing Body Disciplinary Panel, which must be held within a 15 school-day period.

For fixed term exclusions of between 6 and 15 days, governors must meet if requested by parents and carers.

In cases where the exclusion is less than 6 days, parents and carers may make representations to the governing body, but there is no right to a meeting. A behaviour plan and meeting with the governing body disciplinary panel may also be used in order to bring about improvements in behaviour. These will be initiated at the discretion of the Headteacher after all reasonable steps have been taken to improve a student's behaviour.

Suspensions
The Headteacher has the authority to exclude pupils guilty of misconduct or gross disobedience as outlined in Statutory Suspension and Permanent Exclusion Guidance (2024) of reasons for exclusion. The fixed period of time will be determined by the nature of the incident.

- In all cases the incident will be investigated before the suspension begins.
- Parents will be informed in writing of the exclusion. Information regarding the right to appeal will be contained in the letter.
- Pupils will have the opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- A plan for reintegration will be established and work will be provided for the pupil whilst they are excluded.

Permanent Exclusions
The Headteacher has the authority to permanently exclude pupils for violation or gross misconduct. Examples of these acts include, but are not limited to: physical assault against a pupil, physical assault against an adult, verbal or threatening behaviour, drug possession/dealing and persistent disruptive behaviour.

In all cases, the incident will be investigated before the exclusion begins.

- Parents will be informed in writing and asked to attend a meeting with one, or both, of the Headteacher, Deputy Headteacher or Assistant Headteacher.
- Pupils will have the opportunity to respond to the allegations.
- Procedures for appealing against the exclusion will be explained to the parents.
- A letter will be sent to parents confirming the permanent exclusion, including reasons for exclusion.
- The Pupil Discipline Committee will be notified of the Headteacher's decision and a meeting will be convened, where parents are invited to discuss the case.
- If the decision is upheld, a formal letter will be sent to parents and the LA.
- This will include details of how to appeal to an Independent Panel.

Arbor

Arbor will be used to log both positive and negative incidents of behaviour.

Travelling to and from school
St Mary's expects exemplary behaviour when travelling to and from school and will deal with any concerns raised using any of the above interventions.

Teachers have the statutory power to discipline pupils for misbehaving outside of the school premises. Section 89(5) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 gives teachers statutory power to regulate pupils' behaviour in these circumstances "to such an extent as is reasonable."

At St Mary's we will impose reasonable sanctions for any pupil taking part in a school trip, travelling to and from school, wearing school uniform or in some other way identifiable as a pupil at the school. This may also apply to pupils that pose a threat to another pupil or member of the public or could adversely affect the reputation of the school. These incidents will be subject to thorough investigation. Consequences will be imposed that are deemed reasonable in all circumstances.

Mobile phones

Our behaviour policy prohibits the use of mobile phones (this includes any paired devices / smart technology) throughout the school day for all students in Years 7-11. A mobile phone is identified as a prohibited item. Sixth Form students are prohibited from using their mobile phones in front of younger students and can only use them in their study spaces. Mobile phone use amongst staff on corridors will be limited to essential use only.

To do this, we are using a system called Yondr that utilises a simple, secure, lockable pouch that stores a mobile phone.

Use of reasonable force

The Department for Education is clear that schools should not adopt a 'no contact' policy regarding physical contact between staff and pupils. Its guidance explains that such a policy can prevent staff from intervening reasonably when needed to protect pupils fully. Schools should therefore have sensible policies that support staff in making appropriate physical contact, taking account of the circumstances and the individual pupil's needs. The use of non contact de-escalation strategies should be attempted before resorting to the use of reasonable force. It is important to recognise however that there are some circumstances where the use of reasonable force is in the best interests of a child or staff member. When such incidents arise it may not have been possible to attempt the use of non contact alternatives.

The decision on whether or not to use reasonable force or employ restrictive physical intervention when dealing with a child is down to the professional judgement of the staff concerned and should always depend on individual circumstances. All members of school staff have a legal power to use reasonable force

What is reasonable force?

- The term 'reasonable force' covers the broad range of actions used by most teachers at some point in their career that involve a degree of physical contact with pupils.
- Force is usually used either to control or restrain.
- This can range from guiding a pupil to safety by the arm through to more extreme circumstances such as breaking up a fight or where a student requires restrictive physical intervention to prevent violence or injury.
- 'Reasonable in the circumstances' means using no more force than is needed.

As mentioned above, schools generally use force to control pupils and to restrain them. Control means either passive physical contact, such as standing between pupils or blocking a pupil's path, or active physical contact such as leading a pupil by the arm out of a classroom.

Restrictive physical intervention means to hold back physically or to bring a pupil under control. It is typically used in more extreme circumstances, for example when two pupils are fighting and refuse to separate without physical intervention.

School staff should always try to avoid acting in a way that might cause injury, but in extreme cases it may not always be possible to avoid injuring the pupil. When can reasonable force be used?

Reasonable force can be used to prevent pupils from hurting themselves or others, from damaging property, or from causing disorder. In a school, force is used for two main purposes – to control pupils or to restrict them physically.

The decision on whether or not to physically intervene is down to the professional judgement of the staff member concerned and should always depend on the individual circumstances. It is unlawful to use force as a punishment. Staff will undertake a dynamic risk assessment whenever any use of Restrictive physical intervention is required. They will immediately risk access to the best of their ability, considering they are 'in loco parentis' responsibility for the wellbeing of all of the students in their care.

What happens if a pupil complains about the use of force?
All complaints about the use of force will be thoroughly, speedily and appropriately investigated.

Power to search pupils without consent
In addition to the general power to use reasonable force described above, headteachers and authorised staff can use such force as is reasonable given the circumstances to conduct a search for the following "prohibited items":

- mobile phones
- knives and weapons
- alcohol
- illegal drugs
- stolen items
- tobacco cigarette papers, vapes
- fireworks
- pornographic images
- any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property.

Force cannot be used to search for items banned under the school rules.

Staff must be the same sex as the pupil being searched; and there must be a witness (also a staff member) and, if possible, they should be the same sex as the pupil being searched.

There is a limited exception to this rule. Staff can carry out a search of a pupil of the opposite sex to them and / or without a witness present, but only where they reasonably believe that there is a risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if they do not conduct the search immediately.

Morning phone scans do not constitute a search as outlined above as there is no physical contact in the initial screening on the way into school.

Malicious allegations

Where, after investigation, it is identified that an allegation made against a member of school staff was malicious then the sanctions detailed above will be considered. As with the application of other sanctions careful consideration will be given to our knowledge of the individual pupil and their mental health.

Ensuring Equality

We will analyse our behaviour incident records to look for patterns and ensure that, in its operation, it is not discriminating against particular groups of pupils.

As a school we fully acknowledge our legal duties under the Equality Act 2010 to consider the safeguarding of our pupils and considering any special educational needs before any decisions are made regarding sanctions. In doing so we recognise that some pupils require a more sensitive and differentiated approach.
